COURSE NOTES

The information on the course outline posted on D2L and on the SLLLC website is not binding and can change according to the needs of the class.

- Intellectual property:
Generally speaking, course materials created by the instructor (including presentations and posted notes, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may not be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the instructor. The posting of course materials to third-party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the course may be allowed under fair dealing.
- Lectures delivery: The lectures will be delivered in live sessions on Zoom. In some cases, the lecture may be pre-recorded and uploaded online. In that case, links will be provided on D2L.
- Lab delivery: The lab instructor will upload content and communicate with students on D2L.
- Course technology requirement:
 - A computer with a supported operating system, a French-enabled keyboard, as well as the latest security and malware updates;
 - A current and updated web browser;
 - Webcam/Camera (built-in or external);
 - Microphone and speaker (built-in or external), or headset with microphone;
 - Current antivirus and/or firewall software enabled;
 - Stable internet connection
- Guidelines for Zoom meetings:
 - 1) Lecture and lab sessions will take place synchronously via Zoom. Zoom links will be posted on D2L. 2) Since this is a language class, you may be asked to perform oral activities with or in front of your classmates. Please make sure your microphone and camera are functioning normally. It is highly recommended that you find a quiet space to attend each Zoom session.

3) Attendance: To derive the utmost benefit of instruction, daily attendance is essential. Attending class is extremely beneficial to understand the textbook content written purely in French, to hear and speak French, to interact with others, and to receive instant feedback from your instructor and your peers. The instructor should be informed of any reason for the prolonged absence.

4) Participation: You are expected to participate actively in the Zoom sessions. Please restrict yourself from using material or digital tools irrelevant to the course. Please mute your cellphone during class.

5) Classroom Etiquette: practicing a foreign language entails taking risks and allowing yourself to be vulnerable in front of other people. You are used to being able to speak at a much more sophisticated level in your native language, so working in French is not always easy. For this reason, it is essential to establish an atmosphere of mutual respect in the classroom. Please be attentive and listen not only to your instructor but also to your classmates when they speak.

6) Be on time for Zoom lectures: Attendance will be taken at the beginning of the lecture. Latecomers may be marked absent.

- Announcements: Instructions concerning assignments, activities, quizzes, tests, and exams will be posted on D2L. The student is responsible for following all such instructions. The student needs to check all the different sections of D2L regularly, including but not limited to, the past and current news items, Course Content, Assessments (including Quizzes and Dropbox), and Communication.
- Exams: All exams will be delivered online. Delivery by email is not allowed. The student needs to follow the instructions regarding the delivery method that are posted on D2L. Some exams will be given as quizzes and others will be uploaded in a Dropbox folder. It is recommended to read the Student handbook on academic integrity that you can find here.
- Contacting the professor:
 - Online: during office hours on Zoom. Students will be admitted to the waiting room in the application and will be spoken to on a first-come-first-served basis.
 - By email: only use the university email to communicate with your professor, clearly state the subject of the message mentioning your course and section numbers and give, at least, 48 hours to receive a response during the working days of the week (from Monday to Friday).
- Missed tests, assignments, and examinations with no legitimate reason will be given a grade of F. The instructor will not prepare make-up tests or assignments.
- There is no mid-term examination and no final examination, but all tests are cumulative.
- Labs will start the week of May 5, 2021. The labs are an integral part of this course. They are mandatory and attendance will be taken. Oral participation in the labs will be assessed for consideration of the final grade. An oral presentation will be required as an element of the laboratory work. The topic and the rubrics of the oral presentation are posted on D2L. Please bring your textbook to the lab. Written, oral and comprehension exercises will be done in the lab on a regular basis.
- Students are expected to check the D2L page on a regular basis for announcements, homework, assignments, marks, and complementary learning materials.
- Students are advised to read the excerpt on PLAGIARISM.
- Dictations
 - Dictations are spelling tests. Your instructor prepares a paragraph and reads it to you slowly so you can write every word and punctuation. There is no memorization necessary and there are no questions to answer at the end of the test. Dictations are designed to verify your understanding of sounds, words, phrases, grammar, and syntax. When grading dictations, one mark is taken away for each of the following: spelling, verb agreement, adjective agreement, noun agreement, capital letters, and all omissions. (half a mark for accents, hyphens, capital letters, and punctuation).
 - Dictations are approximately 100 words long. To prepare for dictations, follow your instructor's advice on the pages to review in the textbook, read chapter vocabulary aloud

Faculty of Arts
School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures

paying attention to accents and liaisons, spell each new noun with its article, and write down each verb with its conjugation. Each dictation is worth 5%.

- Compositions

Compositions are paragraphs written on a specific topic given by your instructor. They can vary in length: ~100 words to 200 words in French 209. Compositions are marked out of 100 points: about 50 points are for content (respect of the given topic, appropriate length, creativity, avoidance of repetition, use of vocabulary seen in class) and about 50 points are for proper language use (varied vocabulary, conjugations, punctuation, agreements, sentence structure, spelling, prepositions, and avoidance of anglicisms). Each composition is worth 10%.

- Oral presentation (in Lab)

Oral presentations are designed to give you a chance to practice French orally. Topics are posted on D2L with the marking rubrics (content, grammar, syntax, varied vocabulary, pronunciation (including prosody, accentuation, rhythm, and liaisons), speech delivery, props, creativity, and effort). Your oral presentation will take place in the lab. You will do your oral presentation with a partner, but individual marks will be granted. No reading is allowed. Only index cards with keywords may be used. A penalty of -25% will apply to all oral presentations read to the audience.

Please print the rubrics posted on D2L and give them to your lab instructor on the day of your presentation. However, printing the rubric will not be needed for the online delivery of the oral presentation. The oral presentation is worth 10%. Please choose a date and a topic for your oral presentation the second week of classes during your lab.

- Tests

Tests are based on unit material and are divided into several sections. They may include listening comprehension, reading comprehension, composition, grammar questions, vocabulary questions, transformations... Each section is presented with detailed instructions as well as the mark value and the weight. A few days before each test, your instructor will announce the format of the test in class. Each test is worth 15% of the final mark.

- Active participation

The following will be taken into consideration when calculating the active participation grade:

- Attendance: Please make sure to enter the Zoom session with your last name and first name exactly as they appear on the course list.
- Submitting the online quizzes on time.
- Active participation in class: engaging in discussions and activities and being courteous to students and the professor.
- Active participation in the lab: Preparing lab homework before lab time and engaging in lab activities.

- Online Quizzes

There are four (4) online quizzes posted on D2L and available immediately and until June 16th, 2021, 11:30 PM. Each quiz corresponds to one of the 4 units covered during the semester (Entre Nous 1 Units 1, 2, 3, and 4) and consists of 80 self-correcting questions. Use your book, answer all questions, and submit your quiz. Your grade will appear immediately but you will not see your answers. If you have any questions about your quizzes, make an appointment with your instructor. To access the 4 quizzes, enter D2L French 209, click on "Assessments" --- "Quizzes" - "Start Quiz!"

- You are allowed unlimited attempts for all 4 quizzes. Your highest grade will count.
- There is no time restriction to do the quizzes.
- You will respond to 80 questions randomly drawn.
- You may start the quiz, save all your responses, stop it and resume it later. There are 3 kinds of questions: Fill in the Blanks, Multiple Choice, and True/False.

How to enhance your French class?

- Create your own immersion experience in the Francophone culture. Use the many resources available such as videos, podcasts, movies, and books. There is a file called Pour aller plus loin on D2L that suggests some useful resources.
- Use the Espace Virtuel regularly to review vocabulary and do online exercises. Your code to access the Espace Virtuel is included in your Entre Nous package.
- Use the following website for extra online exercises: <http://ucalgary.ca/repst/exercices-de-langue/>

ASSESSMENT

- Specific exams' instructions will be posted on D2L before the exams' dates. All dates will be indicated on the "Tentative schedule". In case of changes and/or modifications, the students will be notified in class and on D2L and given enough time to prepare for such changes and/or modifications.
- The dictations and the tests will be timed. 50% of the exam time will be added to make up for any technical issues or unforeseen conditions. All accommodations will be given to students who have access to them. There will be no indication of the accommodated time extensions while taking the tests, but all such relevant extensions will be properly applied.
- Grading Rubrics are posted on D2L.
- Tests that are indicated as "individual work" in their instructions should be written by the student without any form of collaboration with other students enrolled in this class or other people who are not enrolled in this class.
- No reading is allowed. For this purpose, your lab instructor may require you to turn on the camera during your oral presentation. If you are uncomfortable presenting in front of the class, you may choose to perform it privately in front of your lab instructor, with your camera on.
