4) Participation: You are expected to participate actively in the Zoom sessions. Please restrict yourself from using material or digital tools irrelevant to the course. Please mute your cellphone during class.

5) Classroom Etiquette: practicing a foreign language entails taking risks and allowing yourself to be vulnerable in front of other people. For this reason, it is essential to establish an atmosphere of mutual respect in the classroom. Please be attentive and listen not only to your instructor but also to your classmates when they speak.

4. Be on time for Zoom lectures: Tests, dictations and in-class composition usually start at the beginning of class and will not be repeated for latecomers.
5. Missing a test: A student who is absent from a test for legitimate reasons must discuss an alternative course of action with the instructor. The instructor at his or her own discretion may transfer the percentage weight for a test to another test.
6. Labs will start the week of January 18-23rd, 2021. As an integral part of this course, labs are mandatory and attendance will be taken. Oral participation in the labs will be assessed for consideration of the final grade. An oral presentation will be required as an element of the laboratory work. The topic and the rubrics of the oral presentation are posted on D2L. Please complete your assigned lab assignments prior to each lab session.
7. You are expected to check the D2L page on a regular basis for announcements, homework, assignments, marks and complementary learning materials.
8. You are advised to read the excerpt on PLAGIARISM.
9. How to enhance your French class?
 - Meeting your French Centre monitors on a regular basis. Monitors are available on Zoom Monday to Friday, 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM. The French Centre organizes all kinds of activities for students of French, please participate! Events will be posted on D2L.

ASSESSMENT

1) Dictations (2x5%=10%)

Dictations are spelling tests. Your instructor prepares a paragraph of 100 words and reads it to you slowly so you can write every word and punctuation. There is no memorization necessary and there are no questions to answer at the end of the test. Dictations are designed to verify your understanding of sounds, words, phrases, grammar and syntax. When grading dictations, one mark is taken away for each of the following: spelling, verb agreement, adjective agreement, noun agreement, capital letters and all omissions. Half a mark for accents, hyphens, capital letters and punctuation. To prepare for dictations, listen to the unit vocabulary on the Espace virtuel website, read vocabulary aloud paying attention to accents and liaisons, spell each new noun with its article, and write down each verb with its conjugation. Each dictation is worth 5%.

2) Compositions (2x7.5%=15%)

Compositions are paragraph written on a specific topic given by your instructor. They can vary in length: 200 words to 250 words. Compositions are marked out of 100 points: 50 points are for content (respect of the given topic, appropriate length, creativity, avoidance of repetition, use of vocabulary seen in class) and 50 points are for proper language use (varied vocabulary, tenses, conjugations, punctuation, agreements, sentence structure, spelling, prepositions and avoidance of anglicisms).

3) Tests (Test 1: 20%, Test 2: 10%)

Tests are based on unit material and are divided into several sections. They may include listening comprehension, reading comprehension, composition, grammar questions, vocabulary questions, transformations... Each section is presented with detailed instructions as well as the mark value and the weight. A few days before each test, your Instructor will post the format of the test on D2L. The listening comprehension and the written part will take place separately in two Zoom lectures.

4) Online Quizzes

There are four (4) online open-book quizzes posted on D2L and available immediately and until Friday April 16th 2020, 11:55PM. Each quiz corresponds to one unit and consists of 80 self-correcting questions. Your grade will immediately appear upon submission, but you will not see your answers. To discuss your quizzes performance, please make an appointment with your Instructor. To access the 4 D2L quizzes, click on "Assessments" - "Quizzes" - "Start Quiz".

You are allowed unlimited attempts for all 4 quizzes.

Your highest grade will count.

There is no time restriction to do the quizzes.

You will respond to 80 questions randomly drawn.

You may start the quiz, save all your responses, stop it and resume it later.

There are 3 kinds of questions: Fill in the Blanks, Multiple choice, and True/False.

UNIVERSITY OF

Precise spelling is required.

You will see all questions on the same page.

You may go back to any question and make changes until you submit your quiz.

All 4 quizzes may be redone until Friday April 16th, 2020, 11:55PM.

- Please make sure that your microphone and camera are both on for this assignment.

You will do your oral presentation with a partner, but individual marks will be granted. No reading is allowed. Only index cards with key words may be used. A penalty of -25% will apply to all oral presentations read to the audience. To ensure that you are not reading your script, you will be asked to perform the presentation at least one metre away from your screen/camera.

- The oral presentation is worth 5%. Please choose a date and a topic for your oral presentation by January 31st, 2021.

INTEGRITY AND CONDUCT

All members of the University community have a responsibility to familiarize themselves with the Statement on Principles of Conduct, and to comply with the University of Calgary Code of Conduct and Non-Academic Misconduct policy and procedures (available at: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>).

Academic misconduct

1. Plagiarism is a serious offence, the penalty for which is an F on the assignment and possibly also an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw. Plagiarism exists when:

- a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test);
- b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author;
- c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or
- d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted."

Plagiarism occurs not only when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement but also when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. A bibliography is insufficient to establish which portions of the student's work are taken from external sources; footnotes or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose.

2. Cheating at tests or examinations includes but is not limited to dishonest or attempted dishonest conduct such as speaking to other candidates or communicating with them under any circumstances whatsoever; bringing into the examination room any textbook, notebook, memorandum, other written material or mechanical or electronic device not authorized by the examiner; writing an examination or part of it, or consulting any person or materials outside the confines of the examination room without permission to do so, or leaving answer papers exposed to view, or persistent attempts to read other students' examination papers.

3. Other academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, tampering or attempts to tamper with examination scripts, class work, grades and/or class records; failure to abide by directions by an instructor regarding the individuality of work handed in; the acquisition, attempted acquisition, possession, and/or distribution of examination materials or information not authorized by the instructor; the impersonation of another student in an examination or other class assignment; the falsification or fabrication of clinical or laboratory reports; the non-authorized tape recording of lectures.

4. Any student who voluntarily and consciously aids another student in the commission of one of these offences is also guilty of academic misconduct.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND COPYRIGHT LEGISLATION

Course materials created by instructors (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may not e

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures listed below. The student accommodation policy can be found at: <https://ucalgary.ca/student-services/access/prospective-students/academic-accommodations>.
