COURSE NOTES

ATTENDANCE:

A Zoom link for lectures is provided on the course D2L site under the Communication heading. Attending the lectures is critical for learning an relatively undocumented language like Îethka. If you cannot attend lectures for some reason, please let the instructors know as soon as possible, so we can try to help you make up for lost content.

OPEN BOOK QUIZZES: There will be five (5) open book quizzes, which test students on the material covered in the previous classes. Quizzes will be done on D2L outside of class time, and students will have at least 24 hours to complete the quiz. The lowest quiz grade will be dropped from the calculation of the final grade. Quizzes are worth 30% of the overall final grade, 7.5% from each of the top four of five quizzes. Quizzes that are missed will receive a grade of zero.

ASSIGNMENTS: There will be three assignments given out as part of this course, worth a total of 40%. Assignments may include a verbal component, where you record yourself speaking the language. You will be given at least two weeks to complete each assignment. These assignments will be described in detail when they are given.

FINAL PROJECT: Students will be given a number of options for a final project in this semester, which could include working in a group or as an individual. Typically, this will involve developing a conversation, a story, or a game that can be used to practice the language. During the final two classes of the semester, students will share a short presentation on their final project so that others can see what they've done.

PARTICIPATION: The best way to learn a language is to speak the language. Asking questions, trying to speak the language and participating in discussions and class activities will earn students up to 15% on their final grade.

ABSENCE AND LATE WORK:

As mentioned above, attendance is critical to succeeding in this course, so please let the instructors know if you are unable to attend for any reason. Quizzes and assignments are scheduled to be completed by specific dates. Please let us know as soon as possible if you cannot complete an assignment or quiz before the due date. Unexcused late assignments will result in a grade of zero. Students will receive a grade of zero for any quiz that is not completed by the designated date; however, the lowest quiz score will be omitted from the calculation of the final grade.

INTEGRITY AND CONDUCT

All members of the University community have a responsibility to familiarize themselves with the Statement on Principles of Conduct, and to comply with the University of Calgary Code of Conduct and Non-Academic Misconduct policy and procedures (available at: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>).

Academic misconduct

1. Plagiarism is a serious offence, the penalty for which is an F on the assignment and possibly also an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw. Plagiarism exists when:

- a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test);
- b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author;
- c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or
- d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted."

Plagiarism occurs not only when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement but also when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. A bibliography is insufficient to establish which portions of the student's work are taken from external sources; footnotes or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose.

2. Cheating at tests or examinations includes but is not limited to dishonest or attempted dishonest conduct such as speaking to other candidates or communicating with them under any circumstances whatsoever; bringing into the examination room any textbook, notebook, memorandum, other written material or mechanical or electronic device not authorized by the examiner; writing an examination or part of it, or consulting any person or materials outside the confines of the examination room without permission to do so, or leaving answer papers exposed to view, or persistent attempts to read other students' examination papers.

3. Other academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, tampering or attempts to tamper with examination scripts, class work, grades and/or class records; failure to abide by directions by an instructor regarding the individuality of work handed in; the acquisition, attempted acquisition, possession, and/or distribution of examination materials or information not authorized by the instructor; the impersonation of another student in an examination or other class assignment; the falsification or fabrication of clinical or laboratory reports; the non-authorized tape recording of lectures.

4. Any student who voluntarily and consciously aids another student in the commission of one of these offences is also guilty of academic misconduct.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND COPYRIGHT LEGISLATION

Course materials created by instructors (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may not be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the instructor. All students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright (<https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/acceptable-use-of-material-protected-by-copyright.pdf>) and requirements of the Copyright Act (<https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html>) to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PRIVACY (FOIP) ACT

Graded assignments will be retained by the Department for three months and subsequently sent for confidential shredding. Final examinations will be kept for one calendar year and subsequently sent for confidential shredding. Said material is exclusively available to the student and to the department staff requiring to examine it. Please see <https://www.ucalgary.ca/legalservices/foip> for complete information on the disclosure of personal records.
